

WHO WAS ON A JOURNEY...

WHO THEN IS MY NEIGHBOR? ○

Discussion Guide | July 15, 2018

Read together Luke 10:25-37

The greatest commandment in the Bible is to love God and to love our neighbor. To make the choice to love others it will be costly, inconvenient, and often messy. Yet it's exactly this kind of love that Jesus models for us and calls us to.

Who Was On A Journey || Who Then is My Neighbor?

1. What was the most significant take-away from this sermon?
2. What does it mean in verse 29 that the lawyer desired to justify himself?
3. Why do you believe that both the Priest and the Levite chose to walk on the other side of the road? Can you share a time in your life when you chose to avoid the messiness of getting involved with someone else's life and problems?
4. Who in the town of Park Rapids needs to be shown mercy?
5. What is one step of obedience that you believe God is calling you to do in response to the truths expressed in this talk?

Sharing/Caring Questions

1. What has God been showing you this past week through His word, through life situations at home, work, church, or through other means?
2. Are there any things in your life or family we can celebrate together - spiritual or otherwise?
3. Are there any struggles or hardships in your life or family that we can pray for - spiritual or otherwise?
4. Are there any other prayer requests or specific areas the group can pray for?