Read together Jeremiah 6:16

The people of Israel were at a crossroads in Jeremiah's day. They could choose to follow God in the path of faith or they could choose the path of convenience and familiarity. We too are at a crossroads as a church. If we will choose the path of faith we will find rest for our souls.

Life Together || Junction Ahead

1. What was the most significant take-away from this sermon?
2. Do you think that you would describe your spiritual experience as possessing a deep and abiding rest, like what is promised in Jer. 6:16? If not, what would you say is the biggest barrier for experiencing this kind of peace?
3. What are the dangers of putting our hope in hiring a new pastor who will fight our battles for us?
4. Do you think that our facilities and programs are producing the intended fruit that God is desiring for us as a church? Why or why not?
5. What is one step of obedience that you believe God is calling you to do in response to the truths expressed in this talk?
