Read together Ephesians 4:1-3

God has called his church to live life together in unity and grow up in our faith together. Sometimes that growth comes as we bear with each other's faults, weaknesses, and differences. If we will rise to this challenge, we will be on our way to living our lives worthy of the calling.

Life Together || Family Living

1. What was the most significant take-away from this sermon?
2. How is a preoccupation with other people's differences and faults harmful to us spiritually?
3. Often times we meet people within the church that can really irritate us. God often uses those people to show us areas that we need to grow in. What areas in your life does God want to grow you in to be more like Jesus as you relate to others within the church?
4. Often we choose to avoid people that are different or irritate us within the church. What is one action step you can take to move toward loving those people within our church?

Sharing/Caring Questions
