ADULTS - Fellowship Hall

Explore the Bible: Galatians, James

At first glance, Galatians and James may seem to be two diametrically opposed books. Paul wrote Galatians to emphasize salvation by grace and not by works. James wrote to emphasize the need for works to demonstrate faith. The two books are not contradictory. They only view salvation from different vantage points. Paul spoke to those trying to obtain salvation, and James spoke to those who claimed to have it but with no visible evidence in their lives. They are not competitors but companions in the truth of the gospel.

MARRIAGE - Chapel Room #4

You and Me Forever - Francis and Lisa Chan

Francis Chan and his wife Lisa address the question that many couples wonder at the altar: "How do I have a great marriage?" Setting aside typical topics on marriage, Francis and Lisa dive into Scripture to understand what it means to have a relationship that satisfies the deepest parts of our souls. In the same way that Crazy Love changed the way we see our personal relationship with God, You and Me Forever: Marriage in Light of Eternity will radically shift the way we see one of our most important earthly relationships: marriage. Jesus was right. We have it all backwards. The way to have a great marriage is to not focus on marriage.
