FaithBridge LEVITeam Covenant 2021

Our Worship Creed

Since worship is a lifestyle on and off the stage, a level of accountability is essential for the health and integrity of the FaithBridge LEVITeam. Leading worship is both a privilege and responsibility. It calls for us to meet regularly with Christ throughout the week and to live outwardly, to the world, the life of Christ. We commune with Him in secret, not only for our own spiritual health, but also that He may shape us into the kind of “lead worshippers” He seeks for our church family (John 4:24). Remembering that ultimately we are before an audience of One, the King and Creator of heaven and earth, let us seek to bring Him pleasure and not simply perform before men.

“Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless His holy name.” Ps. 103:1 KJV

Recognizing the seriousness of our public ministry we have sense these responsibilities to one another (Romans 12:10; 1 Cor 1:10; Eph 4:3; Phil 2:1-4)...

- ❖ To pray for one another (Eph 6:18; James 5:16).
- ❖ To encourage one another (Eph 5:19; Col 3:15-17).
- ❖ To consider each other as more important than ourselves, putting aside our own preferences for the good of the entire team (Phil 2:1-4).
- ❖ To remember that love covers a multitude of sins; being quick to reconcile (1 Cor. 13:5d; Eph 4:26-27; 1 Peter 4:8).
- ❖ To speak the truth in gentleness, grace, and love (Gal 6:1; Eph 4:14).
- ❖ To hold each other accountable to grow spiritually (Col 2:6-7).
- ❖ To take seriously the need to prepare our hearts for each time of public worship (John 15:4-5; Col 3:17, 23-24).
