NURSERY

From Pastor Jeff's Desk

Dear Faithbridge Family,

Considering the recent message from 1 Timothy 2:8-10 where Paul exhorts "that in every place the men should pray, lifting holy hands without anger or quarreling", I thought it appropriate to remind our members and regular attenders that Faithbridge is committed to peacemaking and reconciliation. From our booklet on Relational Commitments we read the following:

Our church is committed to building a 'culture of peace' that reflects God's peace and the power of the gospel of Christ in our lives. As we stand in the light of the cross, we realize that bitterness, unforgiveness and broken relationships are not appropriate for the people whom God has reconciled to Himself through the sacrifice of His only Son (John 13:34-35; Eph. 4:29-32; Col. 3:12-14).

Therefore, we look to the Scriptures and the Holy Spirit for guidance on how we can respond to conflict in a way that will honor God, promote justice, reconcile relationships, and preserve our witness for Christ. As God gives us His wisdom and grace, we are committed to actively teaching and encouraging one another to live out the following principles of peacemaking and reconciliation.

Personal Peacemaking

Whenever we are faced with conflict, our primary goal will be to glorify God with our thoughts, words, and actions (1 Cor. 10:31).

We will try to get the 'logs' out of our own eyes before focusing on what others may have done wrong (Matt. 7:3-5).

We will seek to overlook minor offenses (Prov. 19:11).

We will refrain from all gossip, backbiting and slander (Eph. 4:29). If we have a problem with others, we will talk to them, not about them to others.

We will make 'charitable judgments' toward one another by believing the best about each other until we have facts that prove otherwise (1 Cor. 13:7).

If an offense is too serious to overlook, or if we think someone may have something against us, then we will go promptly to seek reconciliation (Matt. 5:23-25; 18:15).

When we offer a word of correction to others, we will do so graciously and gently, with the goal of serving and restoring them, rather than beating them down (Prov. 12:18; Gal. 6:1)

When someone tries to correct us, we will ask God to help us resist prideful defensiveness and to welcome correction with humility (Ps. 141:5; Prov. 15:32).

When others repent, we will ask God to give us grace to forgive them as He has forgiven us. (Eph. 4:32).

When we discuss or negotiate substantive issues, we will look out for others' interests as well as our own (Phil. 2:3-4).

Grace and peace,
Pastor Jeff

DEACON OF THE MONTH
Mike Ritter

Mike and Dee Ritter have been attending Faithbridge for three years. Mike grew up in Aberdeen, South Dakota and moved to Sioux City, Iowa when he was in Jr High school. "In 1979, I met Dee. "After a few weeks I invited myself to her Single's Bible study. After attending for a while, I was very confused. Growing up in the Methodist church, I had never heard of the need for a personal commitment to Jesus. One evening I met with the Pastor and invited Jesus into my life. After that I found out how many people in that church were praying for me!!!"

They have been blessed with two sons, Matt and Andy. They have four grandchildren, Milo, Hazel, James and Josephine. Mike retired from a career with Land O'Lakes as a computer programmer and business analyst. They are enjoying their life of "living up North and traveling South to visit the kids."

His verse with special meaning is Ephesians 2:8-9 "For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast."

Preventing Pickleball Injuries

The game of pickleball is surging in popularity across the country. It can be played at any age and skill level. While many might assume that pickleball is a slower, lower-impact sport, experts say it's important to remember that injuries from participating in this game can and do happen.

“P” is for pickleball. There are four other P's that players should remember in order to avoid injury.

Proper stretching before we begin. When we get on the court, we think it's a smaller court and a slower sport, so we don't have to stretch. That is just not the case. Our main concern shouldn't be hand and wrist injuries, which can and do happen. Proper stretching starts from the feet up and includes the lower extremities, the back, the neck and the upper extremities.

Practice with a Purpose, rather than with activity that's repetitive, repetitive, repetitive. This can lead to chronic injuries, chronic use and chronic overuse.

Proper equipment that's in good condition and used effectively is important. Is the paddle appropriate? Is the grip thick enough? As we get older, for example, when we pinch, that puts further areas of stress on the hand. When you're squeezing too hard, it can lead to increased pressure on the wrist.

Proper body mechanics is most important because the ball doesn't bounce as high as it does in tennis, so going after the ball may actually seem more violent. Pay attention to the position of your whole body with each thrust.

For more detailed information and videos visit usapickleball.org

The Snack Drive for Red River Youth For Christ in Fargo will begin on Sunday March 9, and the last day to bring snacks to church will be Sunday, March 23. Look for totes in the foyers, with signs. Thanks so much for supplying snacks that are given when the teens memorize Scripture!

Bruce and Anita Paden, recently retired missionaries who were supported by Faithbridge Church for many years, have been in communication with Chantal at New Hope Center/Center for Grieving Children in Goma, DR Congo, and with the Missions Ministry Team here at Faithbridge Church.

Since the takeover by M23, there is need for food in the area. There is a way to help financially through World Venture. Bruce and Anita Paden still receive money in their Ministries Account and there is also a special project account for New Hope Center. All of that money goes to advance the work of New Hope Center and sometimes to help with other needs that Chantal knows about - like the present need for food. They will be sending money to help people in need who have had some connection with the New Hope Center in Goma.

However, with the situation in the area as of February 24th, there is not a way to send money as the banks are not functioning. When Chantal has a functioning bank account, Padens will let us know. Look to a future FaithBytes for a way to donate for the New Hope Center in Goma through WorldVenture. Please keep these fellow believers and this "nightmarish" situation in your prayers.

Some Adult Mission Trips are being considered. More info to come in the future.

God has given us more opportunities to be the hands and feet of Jesus. Let's answer the call.

Be sure to read the latest news from our missionaries - letters are located in the East and West foyer kiosks.

Directory for the March
Birthdays and Anniversaries*

Library is open on Sunday mornings:
9:15-10:45 and 11:50-12:15

Access to the library is also available during the week when the church office is open. Someone from the office will let you into the library and check out instructions are available.

WE HAVE A NEW LIBRARY COORDINATOR! Nick Thelen has met with Pastor Jeff, Kelly Maninga, and Joyce Killmer and is excited about the library and some new ideas to promote and increase library usage. Nick and Joyce are meeting regularly as Nick learns more about our library and its workings. Thank you for your prayers!

NEW FICTION THIS MONTH:

Guilty Until Innocent is the latest novel by Robert Whitlow. Joe Moore has been in prison for twenty-five years. And he believes he is just where God intends him to be. As more evidence is found and his case is re-opened, Joe and his attorney must determine if the cost of proving one man's innocence is too great when the lives of many others would be placed in mortal danger.

Cornered - three romantic suspense novellas in one volume by Lynette Eason, Lynn Blackburn and Natalie Walters. Prepare for three times the thrills with these page-turners from some of your favorite romantic suspense authors.

Tracie Peterson and Kimberley Woodhouse are co-authors of The Hearts Choice and With Each Tomorrow, the first two novels in the Jewels of Kallispell, a historical romance series set in Montana in the late 1800s and early 1900s. The first female court reporter in Montana and a male librarian are the main characters in the first book while the second book has the formation of Glacier National Park and the departure of the Great Northern Railway drawing together Ellie and Carter on a daring journey that tests their faith in God.

The Naturalist's Daughter is by Tea Cooper, an established Australian historical fiction author, new to our library. Two fearless women – living a century apart – find themselves connected by a notebook. A breathtaking examination of women and science.

What I Would Tell You and What I Promise You are two books in the Echoes of the Past series by Liz Tolsma. In Book 1, determined to resist the invading Nazis, a Greek Jewish woman's greatest dream has become her worst nightmare. Eighty years later, an American college student wants to discover where she belongs and which God demands her allegiance. In Book 2, a family's history is lost to the ravages of WWII in Southwest France and a young nurse in training travels to France and her search for family reveals secrets that no one alive has ever heard. Book 2 is also available on audiobook.

Cold Case Christianity by J. Warner Wallace - with Dave Lindquist - Fireside Room

A journey through Christianity using the analytical lenses of a former atheist and L.A. County homicide detective! Christianity could easily be described as a case for which insufficient evidence exists to make any conclusions about its truth claims. However, in Cold-Case Christianity, J. Warner Wallace uses his nationally acclaimed skills as a homicide detective to look at the evidence and eyewitnesses behind Christian beliefs. He includes stories from his career and the visual and interrogation techniques he developed while a police officer. Along the way, he uses examples to examine the powerful evidence that validates the claims of Christianity.

Everyday Questions: (Are you ready for the conversation?) - facilitated by Barry Munson - South Room

This video series wants to give you more confidence as you answer questions about your faith. You will learn listening techniques and how to ask the right questions. This will help you share the good news of Jesus in meaningful conversations that build strong friendships.

Prayer Warriors – John Parks – Lower Room Please join us if you believe God hears and answers prayers. Spend time praising God, thanking Him, confessing sin, asking for His blessings, and praying for His changing work in our own and other's lives. We will be praying together and encourage prayer requests.
